MARCH TRIPS

	Olney Theatre – Carmen (Olney, MD) Olney's star-studded team turns Bizet's passion-fueled opera into a sexy, swinging Afro Cuban Jazz musical, moving the action from 1820s Spain to Cuba in 1958, on the verge of revolution. Kaufman's Carmen is a gun-runner for the rebels, who falls fiercely in love with José, a Batista loyalist. When Cuba's boxing legend Camilo returns to Havana, Carmen and José's love falls tragically apart. NO meal option - please eat ahead of time and/or bring snack. Wednesday, March 2, 2016 Depart: 12:15 pm Approximate Return: 5:00 pm	$54
	Hollywood Casino (Charles Town, WV) Try your luck! Hollywood Casino at Charles Town Races is the place for exciting Vegas-style casino gaming. Lunch on your own at Casino. Wednesday, March 9, 2016 Depart: 10:00 am Approximate Return: 5:00 pm	$18
  SG	National Geographic Museum (Washington,DC) Go behind the scenes to explore the fascinating history and biology of CROCS and see some of the world's most intriguing species live and up close! This exhibit provides immersive hands-on experiences from listening to crocodile calls and learning what scientists think they mean to creating 3-D animations of these ancient predators. Don't miss your chance to sink your teeth into this amazing interactive exhibition! Lunch on your own at the National Geo Café or nearby. Wednesday, March 16, 2016 Depart: 9:30 am Approximate Return: 3:00 pm	$15
  GT	Woodrow Wilson House (Washington, DC) Guided tour of President Woodrow Wilson House gives a special glimpse into the private life of Woodrow Wilson while preserving his important legacy for future generations. After serving as the twenty-eighth President of the United States, where he led the nation through World War I, won the Nobel Peace Prize and created the League of Nations, Woodrow Wilson moved to S Street in 1921 to reflect on his career as educator, President and world Statesman. Lunch on your own at Washington Harbor/Georgetown Waterfront. Wednesday, March 23, 2016 Depart: 9:30 am Approximate Return: 3:00 pm	$25

APRIL TRIPS

  	Odyssey Cherry Blossom Festival Cruise (Washington, DC) Come aboard the Odyssey Washington DC to celebrate the history and beauty on the banks of the Potomac River.
